LATE ASSIGNMENT / MISSED EXAM POLICY

- Late work is docked 10% per day and given a mark of 0 if the period of lateness exceeds one week.
- In order to reschedule the handing in of written work or an in-class presentation, you must inform me of the reason in writing beforehand; or, if it is an emergency, please let me know as soon as possible in writing after the date of the assignment/presentation. If you do not inform me within a week, you may receive a zero. Please be courteous about this: I am very understanding when it comes to circumstances out of your control, but it is your responsibility to keep important dates in mind, and forgetting a due date for an unimportant reason is inconsiderate.
- You are not allowed to reschedule the final exam unless you have written proof of a medical emergency or other similar severe circumstance.
